

Celtic Spirituality & Brigit tours and workshops in Ireland's award-winning Celtic Gardens

Our unique Celtic-themed gardens tell the stories of the Celtic cycle of the seasons and Brigit, Christian saint and Celtic goddess. The Gardens blend ancient wisdom with contemporary design to create a place of beauty and tranquillity that is rich in symbolism. We offer a warm welcome to pilgrimage and spiritual groups.

Celtic Gardens tour - telling the stories of the Brigit tradition and the old Celtic festivals that made up the cycle of the year. One hour,

Workshop sessions on Celtic spirituality and the Brigit tradition, with options for input, meditation, discussion, working with symbols and weaving Brigit's crosses out of rushes.

Visitor Centre with meeting rooms, Gift Shop, and Garden Café serving fresh food for tea/coffee breaks, group lunches & evening dinners

'The pilgrims absolutely loved being at the garden and got a great deal from the workshop. It provided a good foundation for the rest of the trip and was one of the highlights of the pilgrimage. Thank you so much.'

Jenny Beale is Founder of Brigit's Garden and an experienced facilitator with a particular interest in the relevance of Celtic spirituality to our lives in the twenty-first century.

Your hosts

Moya Roddy is a writer and facilitator with a keen interest in Celtic spirituality. Moya leads weekly meditation and seasonal rituals at Brigit's Garden.

